CHRIS DONOHOE

Chris Donohoe is an independent singer/songwriter. He has released six albums including "Build a Bridge" in 2014 and his latest "Time and Truth" in 2015. Prior to his music career, he spent 12 years in television news primarily as a weather anchor. He also held duties as an environmental and feature reporter. Chris chaired the Little Kids Rock San Francisco Bay Area Council from 2011-2014 and continues as vice chair. He has also served on the board of The Bluefield Project to Cure Frontotemporal Dementia since its formation in 2010. He was raised in Sunnyvale, California on Simon and Garfunkel, Benny Goodman, Neil Diamond, and Cheap Trick records, and holds a B.A. in Economics from the University of California at Davis. Chris is married to Robin Richards Donohoe, co-founder of the Draper Richards Kaplan Foundation, where Little Kids Rock founder David Wish was a fellow from 2005-2007. Chris, Robin and their four children live in San Francisco, California. Chris joined the board of directors in 2014 as an independent, voting member.
