

Jennifer W. Jones

Founding Partner, Nostro Jones, P.A.

Jennifer W. Jones is a Founding Partner of Nostro Jones, P.A., a South Florida estate planning law firm. She has been an active member of the Executive Council of the Florida Bar's Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section since 2011 and currently serves as the Section's Lead At-Large Member for the 11th Judicial Circuit. Jennifer represents individuals with their estate and charitable planning with a focus on integrating family wealth transfer goals with sophisticated tax planning strategies.

She also assists clients in structuring charitable gift agreements and the formation and operation of private foundations. Jennifer received her LL.M. in Estate Planning from the University of Miami School of Law. Prior to practicing law, Jennifer was the Director of Planned Giving for the nation's 5th largest public healthcare organization's supporting foundation.

Jennifer joined the Little Kids Rock Florida Advisory Board in 2015.