

Jamie Zinober

Gasparilla Music Foundation

Jamie currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Gasparilla Music Foundation. With a focus in community outreach, she has established Recycled Tunes, a program in which donated instruments are refurbished and given to local students. Her goal is to ensure that all students have the opportunity to pursue their interest in music.

Jamie holds a B.A. in Public Relations from Campbell University. She enjoys seeing live music but spends most of her time cheering for her children at events. Jamie currently resides in Tampa, Florida.

Jamie Zinober joined the Little Kids Rock Florida Advisory Board in February 2016.
